[For the Commonwealth.]

A meeting of the people of Caldwell county was held in Princeton on the 16th day of March, to express their devotion to the Union, and their determination to uphold the Constitution. The unparalleled interest which the people feel in every movement looking to the perpetuation of our glorious Union and the settlement of our national difficulties, was evinced by the immense assembling together of citizens from all parts of the county, so that the large and spacious room of the court house was filled to overflowing. The meeting was organized by calling Dr. James A. Carr to the chair and appointing H. F. McNary secretary.

The chairman on taking his seat addressed the audience in a fervid and effective manner, arousing the enthusiasm of all present. He then read the following eloquent letter from the Hon. Archie Dixon, which was received with great applause:

HENDERSON, KY., March 13, 1861.

GENTLEMEN: I am in receipt of your favor of the 11th inst., inviting me to address the people of Princeton and vicinity in behalf of the Union, on Saturday next. I regret that my health is such as to render it impossible for me to do so. I am suffering from an affection of long standing with me, neuralgia. But I owe the citizens of Princeton and Caldwell county a speech in defense of the Federal Constitution and our glorious Union, and I will redeem the obligation as soon as my health and the weather will permit me to do so. The news from Washington to-day is most cheering, and gives hope that all may yet be well with our country, and the Union saved. God grant that it may be so. Our motto should be, "Don't give up the ship," and, fighting for our country, for constitutional liberty, for our property in the Constitution, in the Union, in the American flag, in the capital of our common country, in the army and navy, in the police fortifications and public lands, and all the glorious memories that cluster around the brow of our great and mighty nation, we must triumph. The Union must and will be preserved.

"Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just; And this be our motto, 'In God is our trust'—And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Very truly, your friend,

ARCH'D DIXON.

After which the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the wishes of the meeting: R. B. Ratcliff, W. L. Pollard, J. Y. Chambers, F. D. Wyatt, S. W. Pickering, J. B. Broom, and Dr. A. A. King.

D. W. McGoodwin, Esq., was then introduced to the audience, who delivered a speech full of earnest and patriotic sentiments; sentiments, too, which "were evident from his fervent manner sprung from the very soul of the old patriot. During the proceeding the Princeton Band discoursed our national airs in the most delightful style, adding much to the entertainment of the audience.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were adopted without a dissenting voice, amidst the most deafening thunders of applause.

Resolved, That our devotion to the Union continues unabated; that we still cherish a cordial and inseparable attachment to it, that we still look to it as the palladium of our political safety and prosperity, and indignantly frown upon the attempts that have been made to destroy it.

Resolved, That it is neither the interest nor duty of Kentucky, for any of the causes that now exist, to sever her connection with the Union; and that if she should do so, she would be guilty of a crime in her present position as peace-maker, and exercise patience and forbearance, that she has encouraging prospects of an amicable adjustment of all our difficulties.

Resolved, That we endorse the action of our Legislature, at its late called session, in recommending to Congress the calling of a National Convention, and that we look to it as the surest means of restoring peace and harmony to the country.

Resolved, That it is the duty of Kentucky to protect her rights and interest from all encroachments, and that the calling of a State Convention at this time is not necessary to enable her to do so.

Resolved, That the Hon. John J. Crittenden deserves the thanks and gratitude of every patriot in the land for his noble, gallant, and patriotic defense of the Constitution and the Union, and that our Representative, W. B. Machen, in voting against the mentioned complaint offered by the Legislature, grossly misrepresented the will of his constituents in Caldwell county.

Resolved, That our Representative in advocating the immediate secession of Kentucky at this time, does not correctly represent the sentiments of a large majority of his constituents in Caldwell county.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this meeting be sent to Dr. Jno. M. Johnson, W. B. Machen, and also to the Louisville Journal and Democrat, and Frankfort Commonwealth, for publication.

The stars and stripes were then run up by the gray haired veterans of the meeting, accompanied by the "Star Spangled Banner" from the band, and hundreds of patriotic voices, male and female.

A Repentant Baltimore Secessionist.—The Pleasures of Soldiering.

The following letter was received by a gentleman of this city from a young man who left Baltimore on the 22d of February for Charleston, and there entered the Southern Army:

CASTLE PINCKNEY, Charleston, S. C.

My dear Friend: I arrived here at last, and am sorry I ever saw such a place. If I could get out of it, I would do so with the utmost pleasure. We arrived on Sunday morning at nine o'clock, and were immediately taken to Castle Pinckney, where we were to work (on Sunday morning, too), transporting two heavy 45 pounders to the wharf.

We are treated worse than negroes here. We don't get enough to eat, and what we do get is of the coarsest and most common description. If you hear of any one getting the Southern Rights Fever as strongly as I had it, just show him this, and if it does not cure him nothing will. But, however, to drop a subject which, whenever I think of it drives me almost to the point of drowning myself, I will treat of other matters, &c., &c.

[Baltimore American.

We find the following in the Charleston correspondence of the Providence Journal:

"The floating battery has at last proved a failure. From the weight being all on one side, it was necessary to build a stinging tender beyond the other side, on which were placed bags of sand in order to bring it to an even keel, which had the effect to break it in two, and thus render it useless, as it is improbable that it can be strengthened sufficiently to be of any utility hereafter. And it will remain after they have expended $20,000 upon it, a monument of Charleston ingenuity."

THE JOURNAL OF MEDICAL REFORM.

THE COMMONWEALTH. FRANKFORT. J. H. JOHNSON, Editor. SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1861. EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. For Congress: JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

We are requested to state that members of the Legislature and others having business with Mr. Clint McClarty, Clerk of the House, and Mr. J. C. Wickliffe, Clerk of the Senate, will find them at No. 18, Merriweather's Hotel.

See the card of Col. J. Press Sparks, in another column.

We call the attention of our readers to the communication of "Franklin" in another column.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.—The Senate yesterday, by a vote of thirty-three to two, resolved to adjourn sine die on Wednesday, the 27th. This is all proper enough, but we cannot understand it. Senators who voted for the resolution, in a minute after, asked leave to bring in new bills, knowing it to be utterly impossible for committees to report those bills; for the Senate to act on them; for them to be sent to the House, acted on there, and then be enrolled and examined by the Governor, before Wednesday. In fact, the business already commenced by the Senate cannot be completed by Wednesday. Then why introduce new business? If the country needs no more legislation, why legislate? If the country does need more legislation, why adjourn?

Most grave and learned Senate, we beg of you (as editor of the Commonwealth and not as one of your officers) to be consistent. If it is a meritorious thing to adjourn on Wednesday, do so, and take with you our blessing. If it is necessary to pass a few more laws demanded by the present state of the country, do it. Either course is possible and rational when taken by itself, but both combined, constitute a compound impossibility, which presents an aspect rather too ridiculous for even the purposes of "bankum."

Colonel George B. Hodge:

We notice that the Frankfort correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial makes a doleful attempt to be funny at the expense of Col. Hodge. The point of his remarks are based upon the assumption that the course of Col. Hodge in this Legislature has been vacillating and inconsistent. Although we cannot indorse all the opinions held by Col. Hodge, we are an admirer of that gentleman, and have watched his legislative course with great interest. It is but simple justice to him, to say that the statement of the Commercial's correspondent is utterly devoid of truth.

Before the Legislature adjourned in February, Col. Hodge took bold and decided ground against secession. Since then he has not by vote or speech indicated that he has changed his mind on that question.

VANISHED.—It is a remarkable fact that the morning after the Ophidians held their Convention, not one of them was to be found in Frankfort. They seceded; but how they went and where they have gone, is a mystery. It is probable that they are teaching somewhere. But what made them abandon the poor ignorant Legislators? They came here to instruct and became instructed. They came here to take Kentucky out, and took out themselves. They came here to protect the honor and interests of Kentucky, and passed a string of submission resolutions. And they have gone! We hardly had time to say we had them, before we were called upon to mourn their departure. They gave us one comforting glimpse of their red heads, and then seceded. The great question now is, where is the convention of pedagogues, which

"Like an angel's wing through an opening cloud, Was seen and then withdrawn."

The secession society have surprised us in one particular, which, with characteristic candor, we proceed to admit. We thought they commenced as low down and as ridiculous as human beings ever get to be, but they have, with that indomitable energy which characterizes a jackass in his onward progress toward a peak of oats, steadily continued to get down lower and become more ridiculous, until they culminated here in 0, on the 20th, when they became too minute for the naked eye. We trust that the society will resurgam until it becomes entitled to our notice, for it is one of the little things that has afforded us a great deal of amusement.

THE GOVERNOR'S VETO.—On Monday morning we shall republish the very able address to the Governor, prepared by a committee appointed by a convention of the people of Adair and the surrounding counties. The address contains many good reasons why the bill vetoed by the Governor should be come a law. It also presents some arguments worthy the consideration of this Legislature. We trust that no action will be taken on the veto message until the Legislature has an opportunity of reading this address, and other evidences of the necessities and desires of the people of Kentucky.

SENATOR PUGH GOING SOUTH.—A letter writer says that ex-Senator Pugh, of Ohio, has decided, as soon as he can close up his business at Cincinnati, to remove to some one of the southern States, where he intends to apply himself solely to the practice of his profession.

The following extract is taken from a letter from a distinguished citizen of Georgia (who was a Breckinridge elector) to a gentleman of this city:

MORGAN, Calhoun county, Ga.
I tell you I think the people here are mad on the subject of secession; they have ruined themselves by closing slavery within the Confederate States, unless Lincoln is a greater ass than I think he is.

If he has half the sense a President ought to have, he will easily retain all the States that are now in the United States. What then will slavery be worth in the border States? Emancipation will be only a question of time. The Confederate States will be powerless to extend or even protect the institution. Taxation now coming down with crushing force will be unbearable very soon, free government will be a romance of the past. But against my convictions of right, against my voice, I have seceded, and now, being a soldier, I am ready to sacrifice my life for the honor and independence of my country. My company is under Gov. Brown's control, and we may be ordered to Pickens or Sumter by a call of President Davis or Brown at any time. There is no thought of re-union. We are forever gone and no mistake. It makes me inexpressibly sad to think of it. I know we have acted precipitately; and though we may fare well, coming posterity will howl beneath the lead of a bad government. Our government will not continue a Confederacy a great while; the spirit of faction is rampant, being only curbed now by the threatening prospect of war; but retire it is impossible, delay is ruin. The secession cry "Cotton is King" has frenzied the people; we forget kings are often forced to abdicate.

A SUGGESTION.—Being personally friendly to many of the Ophids, we take the liberty of advising them to insure Blunt. Duncan's politics in some office which takes risks on combustible and uncertain property. You have him now; but where will he be in two months? Bet a hat you can't tell. We had him all last summer, and intended to make something "outen him," but one day when we wanted him, he had stepped out—seceded—taken a fort. You have him now, and feel very big over him, but to-morrow you may be bereaved like us! A word to a fool is sufficient.

A VERY HANDSOME PRESENT VERY WORTHILY BESTOWED.—We yesterday saw a beautiful ebony gold-headed walking cane bearing the following inscription: "To Col. Wm. D. Lammom, from S. I. M. M." Should any one take a notion to cane us we hope they will follow the worthy example set by the editor of the Yeoman in bestowing this little attention upon our worthy friend from Hickman. No speeches were made on the occasion, because the parties were (probably) too full for utterance.

We regret that the Governor conceived it to be his duty to veto the bill authorizing the banks to loan four millions of dollars, redeemable in two years from the date of the issue. The veto message was delivered to the Senate yesterday, and ordered to be printed, but was not read. We suppose of course that the Governor has discovered some valid constitutional objection to the bill. The message will be before the public to-day, and until we peruse it we forbear further comment.

If we were not afraid, we would suggest to the remains of the fabulous convention which concentrated here on the 20th, that with their General Twigg's principles they also adopt the hair dye of that distinguished traitor. Red heads are very good in moderation, but when you get a room full of them, it is very trying to the optics of staid old gentlemen like us, who prefer the Union to an office.

The Ophidian party and the Charleston floating battery shared the same fate—i. e., broke in two in the middle; and for the same cause—i. e., having all the big guns on one side—i. e., the columbiads, Duncan and McKee. They both went down—neither could swim, consequently their future associations will be with the mermaids of Charleston bay and of posterity. Brilliant but fleeting institution—Vale!

A gentleman lately arrived at Washington from Montgomery, Alabama, states that the new slaveholding Confederacy does not promise well. The Charleston Mercury snarls and bites. Mr. Slidell refuses a foreign mission. Meanwhile the Union men are lying in wait, watching the opportunity to spring upon their betrayers.

VOTE OF HARDIN COUNTY.—We are indebted to W. T. Samuels, Esq., the efficient clerk of the Hardin county court, for the official vote of that county for Judge of the Court of Appeals:

Southern Rights in the Union.

Mr. Editor: As all the good citizens of Kentucky are in favor of the rights of the South, and opposed to coercion, I desire to call the attention of the calm and sober citizens of all parties, in Franklin county, to the propriety of holding a county meeting at an early day to consult as to the formation of a party in favor of Southern Rights in the Union. This party would have no opponents except those who are undisguisedly for secession, cause or no cause. I feel assured that a party in favor of Southern Rights in the Union, and opposed to coercion, would not have one hundred opponents in this county.

Who seconds this suggestion?
March 22, 1861. FRANKLIN.

NO EXTRA SESSION IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Fayetteville (N. C.) Observer, of Thursday, states that Governor Ellis has decided not to call the Legislature of that State together unless something more urgent than now exist should occur to render an extra session necessary.

A CARD.
Editor Commonwealth: I was informed by a respectable gentleman of Henry county that I was appointed a delegate to the Convention which met in Frankfort on the 20th inst., for the purpose of coercing the Legislature into steps looking to a dissolution of the Union. I came to Frankfort on business on the 20th, and many old friends and acquaintances met me, and asked me if I was a member of the Convention, supposing that I was. To correct such an erroneous impression I write this notice to inform the people generally, and the followers of Yancey and the disunionists in particular, that I have no sympathy with that Convention, or with any person or set of persons whose object is to overthrow or destroy this glorious Union. I am for all our rights in the Union, and not for destroying of it. I think any attempt to influence the Legislature by a few disunionists and disappointed politicians, who choose to meet here to overthrow them, is an insult to them and the whole State. I was born and have lived under the Stars and Stripes up to this time, and I am not now willing to exchange them for any position which the rattlesnake or a dismembered confederacy can give me. Under the auspices of Heaven and the precepts of Washington, let Kentucky be the last State to give up the Union.
March 22, 1861. J. P. SPARKS.

The Act for the benefit of Sheriffs, &c.
We have heretofore published the following act, but publish it again by request of several members of the Legislature:

142. An act allowing further time to the sheriffs for the benefit of tax-payers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the sheriffs of this State who have not finished paying up their State revenue, shall have the further time until the first day of June next to finish paying revenue into the State Treasury, without incurring the penalty of the law for failing within the time now prescribed.

2. Provided that the sheriff who accepts the benefit of this act shall be required to pay in and report monthly on oath to the State Auditor, the amount of revenue that has been collected by him for each month: And provided further, That any sheriff failing to comply with this provision, shall not be entitled to the benefit of this act, nor until his securities have entered upon record their consent before their respective county clerks: Provided further, That any sheriff availing themselves of this act, shall pay interest on the balance due from each, at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the 15th of January, 1861, till paid: Provided further, That such sheriffs as have not paid into the Treasury at least thirty per cent. of the net amount of revenue of their respective counties, shall not receive the benefit of this act until said thirty per cent., at least, shall have been paid: Provided further, That no sheriff shall be entitled to the benefit of this act, until he files in the Auditor's office his statement, in writing, with his affidavit attached, in substance, that he has not used for individual purposes, since the 15th of January last, any portion of the revenue by him collected, belonging to the State.

3. That this act take effect from its passage.

Green County for the Union.

We, the undersigned voters of Green county, knowing certain persons are making an effort to induce our Legislature to call a State Convention, for the purpose of precipitating Kentucky into secession or revolution, and believing such a Convention to be unconstitutional, and that its cost would be a useless expense and burdensome tax upon our people; that it could result in no possible good, but that it would bring upon us irreparable injury—we, therefore, most respectfully and earnestly request our Representative, Dr. D. P. White, and our Senator, Dr. C. J. Walton, to vote against the call of such Convention, and against any and every measure, the design of which is to precipitate Kentucky into secession or revolution.

GREENSBURG, KY., March 19, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS: The above petition was circulated yesterday for the first time, at the various precincts of our county, and received about four hundred names—that being a greater number than all the votes cast for the different candidates for Appellate Judge. The petition is still in circulation, and will be forwarded to our Representative, Dr. D. P. White, so soon as a majority of the voters of the county sign it, which they will do whenever they have the opportunity, as not only a majority, but an overwhelming majority of our citizens are decidedly opposed to anything like secession.

UNION.

Attention, Military!

The members of the Legislature and citizens generally are invited to witness, at 3 o'clock on this Saturday evening, March 23d, an experiment in firing artillery, by an attachment, at the rate of from fifteen to twenty shots per minute. OBITUARY.

Died, on the 18th inst, in this county, Dr. A. M. BLANTON, in the 38th year of his age. He was born in Frankfort, where he was principally educated, studied medicine, and graduated with honor at one of the colleges in Philadelphia; practiced a short time in Frankfort, and when the war with Mexico was brought on, he was commissioned surgeon's mate, went with the Kentucky troops, and was at the battle of Buena Vista, where he rendered efficient service; returned, resumed his practice, and married in '48; was rising in his profession, but to better his condition, determined to make an adventure in California. Between '50 and '55 made three trips across the plains with stock, and spent between three and four years in that country, farming and trading. Returned home, and in the spring of '56, moved to Jackson county, Missouri, and located on a farm. His health soon began to fail, brought on by his toils and exposure in Mexico and California. In the fall of '59 he returned to Kentucky to die. He lingered in a feeble condition until this time. His character was without a blemish, and his prominent traits were great energy and determination to succeed in every enterprise in which he engaged. A wife and two children survive him.

CONSIGNS. The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

The enterprising proprietor of CHESNUT GROVE Whisky (The Purest Medicinal Agent ever known) has furnished the community a stimulant, Pure, Healthful and Invigorating, at the same time a mild, delicious beverage. It is calculated to do away with the vile drugged stuff that is palmed off on the community, and which is injurious to body and mind. In addition to the certificates beneath, he has received a Diploma from the State Agricultural Society, and additional testimony from Dr. Jackson, of Boston, who testifies under oath to its absolute purity.

CERTIFICATES.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9th, 1858. We have carefully tested the sample of Chesnut Grove Whisky which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the Poisonous Substances known as Fossil Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskeys in general use.

BOOTH, GARRET & CAMAC, Analytical Chemists.

New York, Sept. 3, 1858.

I have analyzed a sample of Chesnut Grove Whisky, received from Mr. Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whisky.

JAS. R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist.

Boston, March 7, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chesnut Grove Whisky, which proved to be free from the heavy Fossil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whisky is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully,

THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!

THE SECOND VOLUME OF THE "KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agricultural and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscriptions, and send us one or more additional names for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would published ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list, as published by the Second Volume, but is nothing like so large as it should be. Shall we have the kind and continued support of its present patrons, together with their aid in extending its circulation? If so, we promise to do everything in our power to make the paper worthy of a generous Kentucky public.

The "Kentucky Farmer" will still be published monthly, in its present form of sixteen large quarto pages, for ONE DOLLAR per annum, payable invariably in advance. As the small amount charged for the paper will not justify the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions, no paper will be forwarded unless paid for in advance.

Subscriptions can be forwarded to us by mail at our risk. Letters addressed to us need not be registered. Address dec21 GRAY & TODD'S.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by hereditary disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tuberculosis, in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which renders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous; their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alternative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedies that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as ERYTEMATOUS AND SKIN DISEASES, ST. ANTHONY'S FIRE, ROSE, OR ERYSIPELAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS AND BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER AND SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RINGWORM, SYMPHYLITIS AND MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROOP, DYSPEPSIS, DERMATITIS, AND, IN ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIATED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla,

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

are so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and invigorate every portion of the human organism, correcting its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health or energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and invigorating.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Constipation, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in and Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of
